Happy New Year!

A new year always reminds all of us of the new possibilities we have ahead of us. This year we wish each one of you peace, tranquility, and rest. Remember to not be so hard on yourself and give yourself grace during those moments that appear to be challenging. Surround yourself with people that care and know that GALAS is here to support you.

Upcoming Events

We would love to hear from you about events you would like to have us host.

Membership

This year our membership has grown. We want to thank each of you for helping us spread the word.

National ALAS

Did you know that the next national conference will be held in Puerto Rico? Be sure to check out www.alasedu.org for details!

Social Media

Do you love social media? We are looking for a volunteer who would like to help us keep our members informed about education matters in our state and nation.
